Utilize Model Similar to CAHOOTS to Handle Lower Risk Calls

A New Crisis Hotline Could Serve As an Alternative to Policing in Chicago

Police aren't social workers. A new proposal would stop them from doing both jobs.

CAHOOTS an alternative to traditional police, ambulance response

Focusing Officer Time on Core Roles

Assess lower risk calls to determine ones that may not require sworn officer response

Total average time currently spent on priority 5 calls is 66,882 staff hours per year

Recommendation: CMPD with outside assessor develop comprehensive recommendation to convert low-risk sworn duties to non-uniform units

Recommendations of External Analysis

The city will partner with an external consultant to provide an independent analysis to include areas such as:

- Police-civilian contacts
- Police calls and responses

Recommendation: Engage consultant to conduct an external analysis

CMPD has 34 programs related to youth. There is an opportunity to improve evaluation of outcomes to ensure programs are evidenced-based.

Recommendation: Partner with a university or independent organization to evaluate selected youth programs on an annual basis
